To the General manager of “Dagmar Travel”

Mrs. Dagmar Žáková

Dear Mrs. Žáková,

On behalf of Autonomous non-profit organization “World of Culture” let me express my profound gratitude for your long-term cooperation and constant support of our projects.

For more than 10 years, you’ve been giving us and our clients, participants of international festival and music contests, a warm welcome in the Czech Republic and thanks to you, their stay in your beautiful and magnificent country becomes even more memorable and vivid.

Good attitude, attention to details, professionalism at every stage of work – this is what characterizes you and your employees, makes cooperation with you very enjoyable and gives confidence in good and successful result of work.

We highly appreciate your kind attitude and hope, that our cooperation will be successfully continued and with your help our clients will have a perfect chance to see the beauty of your country.

With best regards,

General manager
“World of Culture”

Edita Isaakyan
